

Joined Amundi US: 2006
Investment Experience Since: 1994

Jonathan Sharkey is Senior Vice President, Portfolio Manager, and member of the High Yield team. He specializes in bank loans and floating rate securities, and manages US and global floating rate and leveraged loan strategies for retail and institutional clients.

Prior to joining Amundi US, Jonathan spent four years with Putnam Investments where he was a Corporate Bond and Bank Loan Analyst, three years with Cypress Tree Investments where he was a Principal and Bank Loan Analyst, and five years with BankBoston as Vice President, Relationship Manager. In addition, between attaining his primary degree and undertaking his M.B.A., he spent five years in banking as a manager in operational roles.

Jonathan received a B.A. in Economics and Government from Bowdoin College and an M.B.A. in Finance and Marketing from the University of Notre Dame.